SATURDAY, NOV. 28, 1874. Call for a Tax Payers's State Con-

It is encouraging to witness the growing strength of the demand of the public for a reduction in expenditures and taxation. At seems to understand that nothing but an earnest monifestation on their part, so stern and unmistakable in resolve that even the Legislature will understand it, will be of avail in checking the extortions of taxation, and the ultimate confiscation of all property.

The tax payers should realize, and make the officials realize, that they constitute the State; it is not, as we have often impressed upon those of this county, a tribute to their intelligence that they have permitted themselves to be se taxed and debt-ridden as they are. The truth of what we assert has been partially proven in the past; and had this class of the mmunity been true to itself, the fact would have been fully, instead of partially established.

Some things are difficult merely because they appearso." Their appearance of difficulty begets timidity and deters opposition; and thus it is with the public evils which are now so oppressing the State in the form of a taxation unprecedented—out of all proportion with any accompanying benefits— and absolutely impossible to be longer borne. We say that it is not difficult to cure and correct this most perverted and disordered condition of the State. If the body of tax payers will intelligently RESOLVE to do it, the cure is effected. As a harbinger and index of this resolve we gratefully hail the call for a "Tax Payers' Convention," called in Jackson on the 4th day of January, the same. 1875; at which this county will be Art. 6-The Vice-President shall surely and well represented, as should every county in the State.

At its last session the fairest of sence of the President premises were held out by our Legislature; we all have a vivid memory of the hopes raised by Governor Ames' inaugural message-breathing economy and retreschment and reduction of taxes. But the annual revenue came out. and its continued increase in taxation sent these hopes the way of their predecessors. Now our idea of the duty incumbent upon this convention is, that it shall carefully prepare a petition to this sonce, the Vice-President. Legislature, containing a specific statement of reforms, of expendi- is vested with full and plenaty tures to be cut down, and a prosentative, this petition will be

A -Call for a State Convention of Tax Payers.

To the Tax Payers of the State of Mississippi : The tax payers of the first district of Hinds county, looking with concern upon the alarming condition of affairs resulting from onerous taxation, and the license given by law to the boards of supervisors in the imposition of burdens upon an impoverished people, have organized themselves into a League, to secure retrenchment and reform. As no isolated movement of the kind can result in any general good, they have appointed a committee to call upon the whole people, white and colored, tax payers in every county, to organize Leagues, and send delegates to a Convention to assemble at Jackson, on Monday, the 4th as the Executive Committee may day of January next, to take coursel together in this matter of supreme trial, and petition the Legislature in respect to the reform needed, and the mode and measure of redress. They desire a firm, patient, well organized, distinct and fair movement, in which all can participate, and which shall in its inception and consummation carry a moral power that cannot be ignored. We urge activity and co-operation on the part of our fellow citizens, as unless prompt action be taken we have nothing to expect but confiscation, impoverishment and ruin.

W. L. NUGENT, J. Z. GEORGE, HENRY MUSGROVE, WM. PALMER.

The newspapers of the State are respectfully requested to publish the foregoing call.

Mail Matters.

Sometimes, and not unfrequently, either, letters mailed in New Orienne are ten or twelve days in ing in Greenville. They are sent by rail to Memphis for dis. and but for the timely discovery the letters would reach here in days. Will the postmaster at New Orleans instruct his subs. Ployed by Mrs. F. had punished to send our mail by way of Vicksarg instead of Memphis, and me enable our business men to at their letters in due time?
